Actress Model Spokesperson Public Speaker

A little about me, I'm a natural performer and love being in front of the camera or audience. Of course I get nervous, but sharing myself with the public also gives me a thrill! I bring authenticity to any room or situation and that quality that easily translates to film or live engagement.

As a performer, my skills range from public speaking and giving presentations as a subject matter expert / promotional model to bringing life to a character in an acting role.

As an entrepreneur I am a hard-worker and bring an extreme level of professionalism to any job or project I undertake. That means that I will represent your agency well and put in the effort necessary to make sure that I get booked and the client is ultimately more than satisfied with my performance.

I have had an interesting career path and find that truly enjoy the freedom and flexibility of being an entrepreneur, performer, public speaker and model. Please find attached a resume highlighting my training and experience; I look forward to bringing my enthusiasm, skills, and self to your organization.

Sincerely,
